

Rust Automation & Controls - Field Service Technician

Role + Responsibilities

Rust Automation & Controls is looking for a Field Service Technician to join their team in Southern and Northern California. The position of Field Service Technician entails everyday travel to our varied customers (including power, energy, process, chemical, mining, life sciences, pharma, food and beverage, and commercial) throughout our territory to perform assembly and disassembly, assist with troubleshooting, maintenance, calibration, installation, and repairs of the various product lines based on the manufacturer's specifications. Approx. 15% is overnight, primarily in the spring and fall coinciding with plant outages.

Qualification + Profile

The ideal candidate will possess the education, skills, competencies, and availability outlined below

Minimum Education & Education:

- High School Diploma or equivalent.
- Associates Degree in Technical Field Preferred.
- Experience as an electromechanical field tech doing calibration and repairs preferred.

Skills:

- Demonstrates basic electrical and mechanical knowledge. Any knowledge of electrical and hydraulic actuators and familiarity with Pneumatics is a strong plus.
- Ability and knowledge of how to use hand tools and electronic testing equipment.
- Valid Driver's License and safe driving record.

AUTOMATION & CONTROLS INC.

What we expect from you:

- Strong technical aptitude
- Hands-on troubleshooting & repair skills
- Ability to multitask
- Strong attention to detail
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Can work independently and exercise good judgment
- Curiosity and desire to learn

Company Info

Established in 1976, Rust Automation & Controls has 40 plus years of experience providing responsive and professional support for our customers. Rust Automation & Controls represents the world's finest manufacturers of process control products, emphasizing innovation, quality, and reliability.